Returning Resorters Throng All Means of Transportation—Lakme Clears With Load of Lumber for San Francisco—Other Notes from the Waterfront.

The Colonel Villebois de Mareuil, French bark, Captain Vivier, moved to the Elmore dock yesterday and will begin discharging 1000 tons of coal today which is consigned to the George W.
Sanborn Company.

The river steamer Lurline, Captain Larkins, left up the river with a load of passengers that she seldom carries. This boat was simply crowded and every sleeping place was taken. The crowd is due to the returning beach travel and there are not enough accommodations to get them all home comfortably. The rush homeward is now on and everybody seeks to return at once which taxes the transportation companies to their utmost.

The oil barge Rhoderic Dhu, in tow of the tug Defiance, cleared at the custom house yesterday bound for San Francisco after discharging fuel oil at Portland.

The steam schooner Lakme cleared yesterday at the custom house bound for San Francisco with 650,000 feet of lumber. She received her cargo at the Westport mills.

The steamer George R. Vosburg, with the barge Wallcut in tow, entered at the custom house yesterday from Nehalem.
The Wallcut has on board 500,000 feet of lumber consigned to the Wheeler Lumber Company and she will await orders here and may go either to Portland or San Francisco.

The schooner Annie M Campbell entered at the custom house from San Francisco in ballast. She is bound for Stella to load lumber for return.

The steamer Costa Rica filed her clearance papers in the custom house yesterday bound from Portland to San Francisco.

The tug Nahcotta, Captain Parker, brought over yesterday afternoon from Ilwaco his limit of passengers, who were all from North Beach points returning from their vacation.

The steamer R. D. Inman entered at the custom house yesterday from San Francisco with general cargo for Portland. She will load lumber for return.

The Norwegian steamship Transit, with a cargo of coal, entered at the customs yesterday from Karatsu, Japan, with Portland for its destination.

The schooner Honopu went up the river yesterday for a load of lumber.

The barkentine Gardiner City left up the river yesterday.

The oil steamer Asuncion with a cargo of oil was reported outside last night and is expected to arrive in this morning.

The German steamer Eva, from San Francisco, is due to arrive today.

The City of Panama, from San Francisco to Portland, is due to arrive in Astoria today.

The freight that the Lurline brought down last night made the boat sit in the water as she came up to her dock like an ocean-going vessel, or a church, so steady was she. Every available space on board was used to store some article of freight and the weight of it put the boat well down in the water. She brought down 65 tons of feed alone and several carloads of hay. In addition to this there was a large consignment of pork and veal, besides the usual run of merchandise. The cargo is one of the largest that the boat has handled for some time and she was so late in discharging that Captain Larkins was obliged to leave some of the return shipments on the dock in order to make the run back in time.

CHOLERA SPREADING IN RUSSIA.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The Prussian authorities are watching with considerable concern the news indicating that cholera is spreading in Russia. The latest report says the disease has appeared on a tributary of the Vistula, which intensifies the feeling of anxiety here, and the authorities have ordered a strict sanitary inspection of all vessels and rafts entering Prussian territory by the Vistula.

Morning Astorian, delivered by carrier, 60 cents per month.

Hot Shot From A Preacher.

During the last year or two six or eight revivalists have done a very successful work in the Middle West. The most successful is the Rev. Billy Sunday, whose story is fully told in the September American Magazine.

Sunday is very severe with those who criticize him. Here is a speech he made the other day in one of his meetings:

"I understand that a young woman is going abroad into your homes and business houses peddling that low-down infamous, malleous, premeditated, damnable, dirty, black-hearted lie that at a town or some town at which I was holding a meeting I noticed two young ladies in the audience who were wearing red hats, and that I shouted that if there was a cowboy in the audience I would like to have him lasso those two red heifers. If I ever said such a thing I deserve to be tarred and feathered. I will willingly give $1,000 to any man or woman who can prove that I ever did such a thing as that. It is a damnable lie—a lie, a lie! If that's not plain come to me. I don't very often pay any attention to stories about me, but when any one tries to blacken my character I'll fight with every drop of blood in my body and won't allow any hatched-faced, frizzle-haired hussy to ruin my reputation. I don't want to carry malice, but I will stand up for my good name. If you see her to-morrow give her my love."

What One Enjoys.

At Otto Sund's pretty and cozy resort "The Commercial," one finds all that the inner man desires in the refreshment line and of the best quality too. To pass a little time in such a neat place and spend it in pleasant conversation with genial friends, probably a little business talk, is, to say the least, enlivening. Courteous treatment is another thing that is appreciated and one receives it from Otto himself who takes charge during the day and from his pleasant night manager both of whom dispense the best to be had. "The Commercial," 509 Commercial street, is well known and widely patronized.
